CHEZ RAYMOND

Les Tamaris

Our local go-to place for fish:
Everything is cooked over a wood fire!!!

Bourride, stuffed capon, grilled Mediterranean lobster... and above all, the famous bouillabaisse cooked over a wood fire, a rarity: under the leadership of Raymond, its colorful owner, this veritable local institution, located on Saint-Clair beach, showcases the catch of the day. And you won't be able to resist the terrace facing the sea, which you must request when making your reservation (required).

LA RASTÈGUE

"The discreet craftsman of Pin de Bormes" Jacques Gantié

"Over the years, La Rastègue's philosophy has been refined to achieve this intimate and understated style of dining, just like at home. Jérôme Masson in the kitchen and his wife Patricia in the dining room welcome you like friends, in a table d'hôte style, without any fuss. Not to mention surprises, it is above all a professional job, very well done, on a human scale that is well understood by visitors..." Gault & Millau
